Dear Parents and Students,

We want to inform you of an important update from British Council & Cambridge regarding IGCSE Physics 0972 retakes in the November 2026 examination series.

Cambridge has confirmed a one-off exception allowing students who received an assessed mark in June 2026 and are eligible for the free Cambridge Physics retake to also enter for IGCSE Combined Science (0653) in the November 2026 series.

*Please note:

This exception applies only to the November 2026 series.

It applies only to students who received an assessed mark in Physics in June 2026 and are retaking Physics free of charge through Cambridge.

Students may take both Physics and Combined Science in November 2026, although this is normally a disallowed combination.

There is a timetable clash, and students may have examinations back-to-back on the same day.

Parents and students should carefully consider the examination timetable before confirming entries.
