Dear Parents,

At New Ramses College, we believe that students' appearance, proper grooming, and commitment to the school uniform are essential aspects of discipline, respect for school regulations, and maintaining the standards and values of our educational community.

We would like to remind all parents of the importance of ensuring that their children fully comply with the school's regulations regarding the school uniform, haircuts, and personal grooming.

Students are required to wear the complete, official school uniform at all times. Any clothing that does not comply with the school uniform policy will not be accepted.

Furthermore, unusual, extreme, or inappropriate hairstyles, shaved patterns or lines in the hair, and cuts or slits in the eyebrows are strictly unacceptable. All students are expected to maintain a neat and appropriate appearance in accordance with the school's standards.

We kindly ask parents to take this matter seriously and cooperate fully with the school in ensuring that these regulations are respected. Please be advised that the school will take the necessary corrective and disciplinary measures in cases of non-compliance. Students who fail to adhere to these regulations may not be permitted to enter the school until the violation has been corrected.
